Governor's Office of Community Initiatives

The Governor's Office of Community Initiatives' (GOCI) mission is to serve as a coordinating office for the governor that connects Marylanders to economic, volunteer, and human service opportunities through government, business, and nonprofit partners. To address that core mission, the GOCI outreach efforts encompass the state's geographic areas, ethnic groups, and faith communities. The GOCI also houses the Governor's Office on Service and Volunteerism and Volunteer Maryland, and oversees the Banneker-Douglass Museum, community affairs and engagement within the executive branch of Maryland government, faith-based outreach, and the governor's ethnic and cultural commissions.

International Rescue Committee

IRC helps people whose lives and livelihoods are shattered by conflict and disaster to survive, recover and gain control of their future. Founded in 1933 at the request of Albert Einstein, the IRC offers lifesaving care and life-changing assistance to people forced to flee from war or disaster. At work today in over 40 countries and 25 U.S. cities, we restore safety, dignity and hope to millions who are uprooted and struggling to rebuild their lives. The IRC opened in Silver Spring in 2006 and has since served more than 10,000 clients.

Literacy Council of Montgomery County (LCMC)

LCMC sustains and grows the social and economic equity of adults in our region through education and workforce training. The Literacy Council of Montgomery County, Maryland, Inc. is a private, 501(c)(3) organization founded by Beth Kilgore in 1963. We were originally founded solely as a volunteer-led tutoring program for native English speakers learning to read and write as adults, but as our community grew and expanded, so did the need to diversify our services. From that came the programs that offer instruction English-as-a-Second-Language (ESL), GED exam preparation, workforce readiness, computer skills, and more that we provide today. Our mission is to advance social and economic equity for under-served adults through academic instruction and workforce development.

The Governor's Workforce Development Board brings together business and other community leaders statewide to address the workforce development needs of employers and appropriate matching of job seekers, including those upskilling and including special populations, such as immigrants and returning citizens.

The Division of Workforce Development and Adult Learning creatively and effectively coordinates job seeker services and training, business services, adult learning programs, and labor market information. Our goal is to ensure that businesses have skilled workers and job seekers have access to employment and training resources and services.

MORA administers and provides oversight to local refugee programs. MORA provides effective services to refugees through interdepartmental efforts within the organization, such as with local Department of Social Services (LDSS) offices and the Workforce Development office, both within DHS. The programs MORA support through the partnership with local service providers include but are not limited to Refugee Transitional Cash Assistance and employability services, English Language Training (ELT), and Case Management to help program recipients achieve rapid economic self-sufficiency and social integration. Through these coordinated services, MORA achieves its goal to promote an inclusive and welcoming resettlement environment in which refugees thrive and become productive members in their new communities.
